

PRAVARA SAMAJIK ABHYAS MANDAL (PSAM)

Objectives -

- 1) To establish a platform to study, analyze and make aware the community particularly in rural area regarding state and national level socio-economic problems, issues and policies etc.
- 2) To study the impacts of short term and long term national and international policies on composition of rural society, rural economy, employment and to educate the people by conducting seminars, workshops and conventions of experts in this regard
- 3) To strive for eradication of the harmful superstitions and out dated customs in the society with the help and wholehearted support of the institution and under the guidance of personalities involved in the constructive social work.
- 4) To act as a catalyst between information technology (I.T) agriculture and rural masses.
- 5) To have regular review of rural credit policies and to provide realistic approach to the same.
- 6) To help in developing a system to seek guidance and co-operation from the experts to strengthen the agriculture and rural employment.
- 7) To study, analyze the problems of rural youth and rural women and suggest corrective measures accordingly.
- 8) To conduct/organize seminars as and when required on education, health, credit, agriculture, employment and water management etc. to convey the suggestive measures to the government or competent authority for the further action.
- 9) To establish a co-ordination process among all such institution who are actively involved in the all round development of the common people.
- 10) To organize training camps for motivating and preparing the youth to fight against social evils, injustice and encourage them to participate voluntary in the various constructive activities.
- 11) To provide institutional support to all those who are individually involved in social work for the betterment of ethical values.

- 12) Considering the larger interest of rural society, to take constant review of the contributions of co-operative sector, in the changing scenario and provide necessary suggestions it required.
- 13) To create an effective open platform for discussing the socio economic issues.
- 14) To act as a catalyst between the rural society and Govt. bodies/institutions concerned and to make full efforts to improve status of living.