Karate Training

The Anti–sexual Harassment cell organized a ‘Karate Training’ for the girl students under the “Nirbhay Kanya Abhiyan”. Prof. Ravindra Kakade guided and demonstrated some of the karate kicks and punches. Girls from all the faculties participated in this programme. Through the demonstration, girl students acquired some simple self defense techniques. About 239 girl students were benefitted from this training. Prof. Ravindra Kakade explained how to handle problematic situation when it arises and apply the self defense techniques in the real-time situation.

International Women's Day Celebration

International Women's Day was celebrated on 8th March 2019 in the seminar hall. An expert lecture of Dr. Rupali Kapare on Laws and Acts related to women was organized for the girl students. The programme began with garlanding the portraits of Hon'ble Padmashri Vitthalrao Vikhe Patil and Padma Bhushan Dr. Balasaheb Vikhe Patil.

Dr. Rupali Kapare discussed on various Laws related to the women. She highlighted that there are various rule and regulations against women harassment and such cases. They should aware about it and become fearless. She also stated the legal remedies to counter the moves of harasser if any. Further an interactive session with the students was also conducted. The program concluded with vote of thanks.
